

1. Many companies sponsor sports as a way of advertising themselves. Some people think this is good for the world of sport, while others think it is negative. Discuss both views and give your own opinion.
2. Governments in many countries have recently introduced special taxes on foods and beverages with high levels of sugar. Some think these taxes are a good idea while others disagree. Discuss both views and give your opinion.
3. Many people think technological devices such as smart phones, tablets and mobile phones bring more disadvantages than advantages. To what extent do you agree or disagree?
4. It is better for children if the whole family including aunts, uncles and grandparents are involved in a child's upbringing, rather than just their parents. To what extent do you agree or disagree?
5. Most people prefer shopping in supermarkets nowadays. How does this affect the local shops? What are the positive and negative impacts of this development?
6. In many countries, fast food is becoming cheaper and more widely available. Do the disadvantages of this outweigh the advantages?
7. The government should lower the budget on the arts in order to allocate more money to education. To what extent do you agree?
8. Many people argue that eating junk food has led to an unhealthy lifestyle. This problem has become more common among young people these days. Do you agree or disagree that junk food is the cause of the issue?
9. Some people think that in order to produce a happy society, it is necessary to ensure that there is only a small difference between the earnings of the richest and poorest. To what extent do you agree or disagree?
10. The manufacturing and use of cars damages the environment but their popularity is increasing. Why is this happening? How could this be controlled?