MESSAGE FROM THE VICE CHANCELLOR

Prof. (Dr.) Srikrishna Deva Rao
Vice-Chancellor
National Law University Odisha, Cuttack

Greetings on behalf of the NLUO Family!

It gives me immense joy to present to you the Batch of 2015-20, which has been successful in establishing new benchmarks of excellence and credibility for this University. As the seventh batch of students to be graduating from the University, the students have created a mark for this institution, and have added to its pride with their skills and achievements in various fields of law.

Since its establishment in 2009, National Law University Odisha has emerged as a leading centre for legal education. As a part of this relatively young institution, this Batch of students has proved to be a highly motivated and dynamic batch that has been part of a great number of initiatives. We have witnessed active participation and contribution from this Batch in every sphere of activity conducted in this institution. The students have made use of every opportunity and exposure provided to them by the University, and thus have fully equipped themselves to be the leaders of the future. The intensive and participatory nature of the curriculum and teaching methods provided here have enabled them to perform efficiently in any professional capacity and ably stand up to the demands of the legal profession. They have shown immense hard work and sincerity towards activities such as mootings, debating, publications, conferences, entrepreneurship and legal aid. Their achievements have set a standard for the batches to come.

This Batch has had the opportunity to engage in discussions and deliberations, and work under distinguished judges, senior practicing advocates, leading law firms and corporate houses to gain practical exposure into the field of law. Over the years, they have learnt not only to be pedantic scholars, but also to perform as well-educated and cultured professionals. It has been a pleasure to mentor this Batch which has been extremely talented in all aspects. I can say with utmost confidence that every student in this Batch would be an indispensable asset to any organisation and would add value to the practice of law in any form.

I invite you to interact with this Batch and provide them with an opportunity to present their capabilities and worth. Your support in helping them realise their full potential would be of immense value.

MESSAGE FROM THE REGISTRAR

Greetings!

It gives me immense pleasure to introduce to you the Batch of 2015-2020. I can assure you that this Batch is empowered in all aspects and efficient in handling complex professional responsibilities. A University is always known by the academic performance of its students but I can say with utmost certainty that this Batch is brilliant both academically and professionally. The academic and co-curricular activities in the University have groomed the students with effective knowledge, which enables them to perform with brilliance in today's challenging environment. Academically, students have been trained in every possible aspect of law with updated knowledge and contemporary relevance. And they have been provided with first-hand exposure through workshops, internships and series of guest lectures. Students have shown immense interest in internships under various esteemed law firms, senior advocates of the Supreme Court and the High Courts, Judges, NGOs, public sector undertakings and research organizations. They have also been an active part of various events nationally, internationally and have represented the University on various forums. Having performed exceptionally in moot courts, conferences, paper presentations, MUNs and debates, and having contributed to clinical services and research projects, it is patent that they would be multifaceted professionals in the workforce. I wish the Batch of 2015-20 all the best in their future career endeavours knowing that they will undoubtedly prove their true worth and mettle in their selection time and time again.

Dr. Yogesh Pratap Singh
Registrar
National Law University Odisha, Cuttack

As the former Visitor of the National Law University Odisha (NLUO), I had the pleasure to introduce the students of the University in many a circle. Conversing with them was energetic. In my interaction with the students on various visits to the University Campus, I found their diversified interests in the legal field. The students have been performing consistently well across various academic and other activities. They have brought glory to the University by performing well at the National and International level Moot Court Competitions. Their exceptional research and academic pursuits have complimented the industry and endeavour of the members of the Faculty and enthusiasm of the Vice-Chancellor. Their curiosity and explorative approach have the potentiality to place the University at a high pedestal. It needs to be remembered that a University gets a good name because of its students and the students get the stamp of the institution because of the identity of the University.

Dipak Misra
Former Chief Justice of India

It was a pleasure interacting with this Batch Students of National Law University Odisha. These students are very enthusiastic, meticulous, well organized and updated in diverse field of law. I am confident that this committed Batch of 2020 will be an asset to any Institution they are part of.

S. J. Mukhopadhaya
Chairperson,
National Company Law Appellate Tribunal

ABOUT NLUO

National Law University Odisha, a premier educational institution imparting legal education was established by the National Law University Odisha, Act IV of 2008. The students receive rigorous academic knowledge coupled with practical learning exposure that renders them field ready as soon as they graduate. The University is home to budding talents in the field of Sports, Dance, Music, in addition to learning enthusiasts who are open to new learning experiences.

Academic Research & Writing have always stayed closed to the hearts of the Students, with their publications in Journals, Newspapers, and Blogs of National & International Repute.

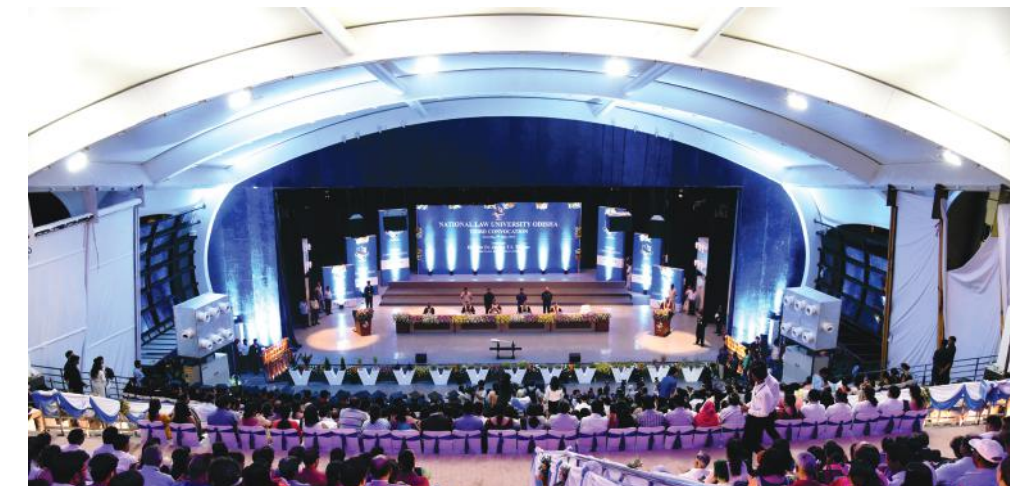

A place that truly imbibes cultural diversity, the students from across the nation share their experiences and culture and grow together in their journey to become social engineers of tomorrow.

National Law University Odisha is a place where a perfect blend of traditional and contemporary knowledge is imparted to the students, that has enabled the students not only do well in Judicial Services Examinations, but also have helped them secure top-notch jobs across the varied corporate firms and public policy thinktanks, to illustrate a few.

The curriculum is supplemented with Credit Courses, Workshops, Seminars, Guest Lectures and events of the like that help the students explore their interests in diverse aspects of law, and gives them an edge over other contemporary counterparts.

National Law University Odisha, promises to keep its flag held high with the Batch of 2020, which is an apt blend of academic enthusiasts, to techno-legal entrepreneurs and from aspiring Civil Servants to dedicated Company Professionals. The students have done exceptionally well in the fields of their choice, and will surely be an asset to their organizational workplace.

ABOUT BATCH OF 2020

The students of the Batch of 2020, through their contributions have lent voice to a unique narrative. This narrative has found its expression in multifarious activities that the students have been involved in, ranging from Moot Court Competitions, Publications, Parliamentary Debates, Model United Nations, Client Counselling, Mediation, Arbitration, Sporting and Cultural Activities. By creating a culture of merit and hard work, the Batch has set itself apart in every facet of student life.

An understanding of the world comes from expanding our horizons and the students deeply cherish the diversity that unites this batch. The students hail from vibrant backgrounds panning across India as a result of which a mutual respect and acceptance of each other, developing into socially responsible citizens. Apart from intellectual and academic excellence, we have endeavoured to raise the bar set by previous batches and to pave the path for the juniors to continue the streak. The students of the Batch have aimed for the pinnacle in every aspect of student endeavours, ranging from bringing laurels in prestigious national and international moots to securing internships with noted advocates, law firms, corporate houses, think-tanks and nongovernmental organizations- showcasing a carefully curated path that each student has embarked upon. In a short span, the Batch has established itself at the forefront and carved out a place for itself through the illustrious accomplishments year after year. Forming the backbone of the Batch is the presence of strong leadership skills that have successfully resulted in entrepreneurial initiatives such as CLAT Decodified, Footloose and Sadvidya, which endeavour to contribute to the society in the most meaningful manner. With a mission to help the underprivileged, the Batch has been deeply involved in legal aid clinics and has assisted immigrant labourers, prisoners, juveniles etc.

The Batch of 2020 recognizes that the world today requires more than just academic excellence – and as a result every student of the batch has moulded themselves into well-rounded students who can meet with any challenge head on and at the same time function as responsible citizens of the society, instilling the motto of the university “In Truth Resides Righteousness” in its every endeavour.

CAMPUS LIFE

NLUO has a thriving residential campus of about 70 Acres situated between two rivers. This setting provides the perfect impetus to the NLUO community in indulging in wide array of activities, ranging from academic and co-curricular to societal welfare schemes. The campus boasts of a world class sports complex, a well-equipped gym and a splendid amphitheater to host any activities. NLUO hosts each year its national sports fest known as 'Viraj' and the inter-varsity cultural fest called 'Sector 13'. The University collaborates with outside agencies to also offer courses on Music, Dance and Foreign Languages. There are various activity clubs within the university like the Music Society, Drama Society and student organized martial arts classes provide a platform for all students to hone their skills.

MOOTING CULTURE

The Batch of 2015-2020 boasts of laurels secured and citations won in various moots nationally and internationally. This is in line with the culture of excellence in mooting that has been established within the university which pushes students to reach for the pinnacle. The Moot Society (TMS), spearheaded by students from the Batch of 2020 as Convener and Co-Convener has played a pivotal role by securing best judges in order to ensure quality challenger rounds to qualify for moots. At the same time, the Intra University Moot Court Competition (IUMCC) organized biannually by the TMS has become a stepping ground for students to learn and gauge their mooting abilities and to pick up moots that will later set them on course for success. By now, the University has firmly secured itself among the best mooting universities in India when it comes to drafting or oral arguments and the Batch has played an important role in setting its benchmark.

RESEARCH CENTER

Centre for Child Rights (CCR)

Centre for Child Rights (CCR) is the specialized research centre of the National Law University Odisha, Cuttack. The Centre was founded on April 12, 2015 with ceremonial inauguration by Hon'ble Mr. Justice Dipak Misra, Judge, Supreme Court of India and Visitor, NLU Odisha in the august presence of the Hon'ble Chief Justice and Judges of Orissa High Court, and Secretary, Department of Women and Child Development, Government of Odisha. The Centre aims at strengthening law and justice for children and child rights practices by supporting and initiating research, policy advocacy and community action on children related issues.

Centre For Access To Justice

Under the project, 3 Legal Aid Clinics have been set up in three districts of Odisha. In Khurda, the Clinic has been set up at Jankia, in Cuttack, it is located at Dompada and in Puri, the Clinic is at Brahmagiri.

The Clinics have been set up with the co-operation of OSLSA and the villages have been selected after consultation with the High Court and OSLSA on the parameter of legal necessity and available logistical support. The purpose of setting up such clinics is to extend legal aid to marginalised sections of society as well as complement existing government authorities in their actions.

Advance Vocational Diploma in Paralegal Studies

NLUO is committed in promoting access to justice for all and to cater unmet legal needs is important mandate of the university to implement its social justice mission. The UGC had launched this scheme on 27 February, 2014 for skills development based higher education as part of college/university education, leading to Bachelor of Vocation (B.Voc.) degree with multiple entry and exit points. Aimed at holistic development of the students, the B. Voc programme is a blend of knowledge-based and skill-based education. Any student with 10 +2 pass in any stream can join the programme.

Centre For Public Policy Law And Good Governance

CPPLGG has been established with the intent of providing a multi disciplinary platform for policy discourse. It aims to bring researchers, practitioners, and interested members of our community together in order to contribute meaningfully to policy debates on development, resettlement, insurrection, parochialism and other such significant issues. It intends to offer programmes that focus on equipping the students with tools for the analysis and development of public policy not only through a theoretical classroom education, but also through a more hands on approach.

Centre for Criminal Justice and Human Rights

To effectively fulfil the objective of instituting a centre of excellence in the domain of criminal justice and human rights, it is essential that the areas of priority are identified and emphasised upon. The themes identified seek to strike a balance between being of localised relevance to the State of Odisha and at the same time having a pan-Indian dimension. Thus, the centre will be focusing on the issues of tribal rights, under-trial prisoners, children and women. The Centre has sent one proposal to the UGC for sponsoring this centre and its activities. The centre has organised a two day Regional Colloquium for State Human Rights Institutions.

Centre for Women and Law

The Centre for Women and Law has been established to conduct a continuous study on the position of women in the Indian legal system and society. How far the laws of India are able to tackle the special problems of women? The centre particularly concentrates on the problems of women in Odisha and Eastern part of India in general.

Centre for Natural Resources Management

This Centre has been established to advance legal and policy solutions to fight climate change and natural resource management; inform, educate and connect law students, practitioners, and policymakers to emerging developments in climate law and policy; and develop databases on climate law and regulation. The Centre works in association with climate change scientists and harnesses the expertise of environmental law scholars and network with governmental, non governmental and academic organizations. It also does research on how legal systems shape food systems and influence the agricultural sector.

Centre for International Trade Law

Center for International Trade Law-Center for International Trade Law of NLUO focuses on the research on WTO and other trade issues. Members of the center have started the project of uploading the edited version of the decisions of the Appellate Body of the WTO. Purpose is to make a shorter and easier version of the Appellate Body decisions to the students of WTO law.

Centre for Corporate Law

NLU Odisha is possibly the first National Law University to set up a research centre dedicated to Corporate Law and Policy. The Centre for Corporate Law, as it is called, is an initiative to promote interdisciplinary research in corporate law, and related fields like competition law and policy making, conflict management, banking and insurance laws. The Centre offers consultancy and training programme for judges, lawyers, corporate executives, students, and enforcement officials in the field of Corporate law.

Intellectual Property Analysis & Advocacy Centre

Intellectual Property Analysis and Advocacy Centre (IPAAC) has been established with the objective of enhancing the intellectual property knowledge base and research capabilities of the country in general, and the State of Odisha in particular.

Centre for Consumer Law

This Centre is aimed at furthering the cause of access to legal justice for consumers. Consumer disputes are generally of a nature where a small individual is pitted against a big corporate house. The Centre aspires to bridge this big gap by contributing at various stages of legal representation for the poor litigant. Another objective is providing the students of the University with significant practical exposure.

Tribal Rights Advocacy Centre

The centre has been established to ensure justice to tribal people and to conduct research on related policy and implementation issues. In a state like Odisha, there is -ample opportunity to do research on various issues of tribal communities including self-governance, economic issued, social dogma, family issues etc.

The Centre for Industrial Relations and Labour Laws

This Centre has been established with the vision to facilitate legal awareness amongst workers and protect the rights of workers in the organized and unorganized sector. Its mission is to focus on protecting the rights of the workers in fields ranging from construction to agriculture with special attention to women and child labour related issues. For this purpose it aims to conduct extensive field work and research, thereby creating a reliable database.

Centre for Maritime Law

NLU Odisha has established this Centre keeping the view of traditional history and importance of maritime issues in the state of Odisha. It plans to offer courses on maritime law and promote research in this area. The Centre also contributed to organizing the NLUO International Maritime Arbitration Moot.

Alternative Dispute Resolution Centre (Mediation and Negotiation)

The Alternative Dispute Resolution Centre is an initiative by the University to promote academic research on themes pertaining to the resolution of disputes. Alternative Dispute Resolution is a new and emerging inter-disciplinary field that is concerned with, inter-alia, the following themes: (a) the study of the causative structural factors and the subjective motives of the actors giving rise to disputes; (b) the study of the formal and informal institutions dedicated to the resolution of disputes; and (c) the study of the laws and regulations to produce fair outcomes of disputes. The Centre is particularly oriented towards the study the dispute resolution systems existing both nationally and internationally. The Centre looks forward to extensive collaborations with institutions, both professional and academic, engaged in this new field.

LEGAL SERVICE CLINIC

The Legal Aid Society of National Law University Odisha, is a student committee of the University and was constituted in 2012. It is run with constant support and guidance of its faculty advisor Asst. Prof. Suman Dash Bhattamishra and Ms. Kuntirani Padhan. The members and volunteers of the Society are a group of enthusiastic students who have constantly been involved in various activities to keep the spirit of legal aid alive. The Society carries out its functions with an aim to provide access to justice to the disadvantaged and marginalized sections of the population, primarily by spreading legal awareness and legal education in educational institutions and under-privileged communities. Since its inception, the Society has conducted numerous Legal Literacy Programmes in remote areas of Odisha, predominantly in schools, colleges, orphanages, mental asylums, prisons, brick kilns and old age homes, in addition to conducting several legal surveys in order to identify issues faced by the target groups and formulating solutions to solve the same. This society has benefited from the able leadership of students of the Batch of 2020 as Convener and Co-Convener, under whose guidance Legal Aid Fest Ayuda, 2018, Regional Consultation On “Strengthening and Promoting Law School Clinics in India, 2019 and Legal Awareness Camp at Circle Jail Choudwar were held.

IDIA ODISHA CHAPTER

The IDIA project was initiated by Dr. Shamnad Basheer to reach out to the marginalized and under-represented groups, sensitize them to law as a viable career option and help interested students acquire admission to national law schools and financially support them on their journey thereon. It is hoped that such access to legal education would go a long way towards empowering the marginalized and underprivileged students and the communities that they represent. National Law University Odisha proudly houses the Odisha Chapter of this body. The University is home to two scholars and one trainee currently and has been the avenue to legal education for multiple other scholars in the past. The team carries out sensitization sessions, legal aid drives, literacy programmes, fundraising activities in the nature of conferences and marathons, among others and conducts national eligibility tests for probable scholars, before training them to appear for CLAT and AILET examinations. The Batch of 2020 has helped this chapter in plentiful ways, be it training of scholars or waiver of various fees, to name a few. Additionally, this batch has also guided the chapter as Team Leaders and Dty. Team Leaders for multiple years and contributed to the shaping of the chapter as it stands now.
