SOLUTIONS

1. B

The singular countable noun 'function' in option C and E follows the quantifier 'several', which requires a plural noun. The countable noun has to be in accordance with the plural noun, therefore, 'functions' is the correct word thereby eliminating option C and E. The statement before the blank state that bitcoins are being replaced by Cryptocurrencies. Thus, the next statement states the positive aspect which has to be of cryptocurrency not of bitcoins because of this option A and E got eliminated. Bitcoin or cryptocurrency is a system of digital money transaction so, the suitable pronoun is 'they' not 'it'.

2. D

The sentence after the blank state 'his' that means the blank sentence is about a man. Therefore, eliminating A and B option mentioning 'it' and 'they'. The correct phrase is 'of all peoples' not 'of all people'. Therefore, eliminating option C and E. Allegory means a story, poem, or picture that can be interpreted to reveal a hidden meaning, typically a moral or political one. Allegedly is used to convey that something is claimed to be the case or have taken place, although there is no proof. Therefore, allegory and barely makes no sense in the context of the statement. So, eliminating option E, A and C.

3. B

The statement before the blank is talking about three planets and statement after the blank states the features of those three plants so this implies the statement required should be about the three planets. Option A is in particular about the third plant. In option C, firstly the 'have' should be replaced by 'has' because of the subject pronoun 'it' or the 'it' should be replaced by 'they'. Also, the statement is talking about one thing or one planet. Thus, it doesn't accord with the statement followed by blank having mentioned 'they'. In option D, 'the masses' doesn't seem to fit. It should be 'their masses'. Statement E is a result therefore, it should not be placed in between rather it should be placed at the end of the passage.

4. C

Morphology is the study of the forms of things. "As in" is usually used to cite an example whereas; "As with" is written to suggest "as is the case with" therefore, as with seems more accurate. Thus, eliminating option A and E. In option A, 'arisen' shows the past tense which is incorrect with the passage simple tense. In option B, the singular verb arises doesn't fit with the plural subject two considerations. In options D and E, it should be two considerations as the subject is plural not singular. In option E, 'relate' form of the verb doesn't fit with 'are'.

5. A

The statement after the blank states 'these problems' whereas; the statement before the blank state only one problem this means that the blank should be such statement which conveys the problems faced by scientists. In statement B, C and D the scientists found out, the information which scientist has found doesn't seem a problem because of which they have to implant fitness tracker into the elephant trunks. Statement E generally states the reason for doing this study. Therefore, statement B, C and D are eliminated.

6. C

All the sentences are related to each other and incomplete as a single sentence. To get meaning, we should combine them with a suitable answer. 'As the fear of untamed' should be the starter of the sentence to get the meaningful sentence. New Sentence: As the fear of untamed, runaway inflation in these economies abates, the global investor's comfort levels with their markets will increase.

7. C

The cabinet's approval has led to the proposed merger of SBI and the five subsidiaries. Approval is the main word here. Hence C is the correct choice. New Sentence: The approval of the proposed merger of State Bank of India and its five subsidiaries by the cabinet will create the first Indian lender to rank among the world's top 50.

8. B

According to the sentences, a combustible mixture of authoritarianism, unemployment and youth has given rise to disaffection with strongmen rulers in many countries which has in turn spilled over into uprising. So, in many countries is the most suitable response. New Sentence: In many countries, a combustible mixture of authoritarianism, unemployment and youth has given rise to disaffection with strongmen rulers which has in turn spilled over into uprising.

9. C

Here the cause of signing the petition is the revelation of the project's harmful effects that triggered an alarm. So it is this alarm that led people to action. Hence, C is the correct choice
